Merrill Lynch are offering Industrial Placements within Global Technology Infrastructure (GTI)

The following skills and attributes are sought:

JOB BRIEF:
Each candidate will be an analyst/programmer wishing to find a year’s industrial placement. He/she will join a small team developing and supporting a wide range of infrastructure services e.g. Networks, Market Data, End User Computing, Service Quality, Distributed Computing, Database Administration which provide services to over 5,000 EMEA clients across Europe, Africa and the Middle East. Platforms used are Windows 2000 and Windows XP, Unix, Winux, Cisco IOS and CatOS. Software development tools include: .NET, Visual Studio, SQL Server, XML, MQ Series, Oracle and Perl.

TECHNICAL SKILLS: Experience of some of the following would be an advantage

- Software development on Windows
- Web applications development including XP, Windows Server 2003, Unix (Solaris) and Winux (Redhat).
- ASP, VB Script, JavaScript, HTML, XML, XSL, C#, POL, Transact SQL (SQL Server Oracle)
- Microsoft Office Suite including Visio and Project

PREFERENTIAL SKILLS:

- A good team player with excellent communication skills.
- Enthusiasm for technology.

START DATE:
July 2007

WORKING HOURS:
35 hour week, but each candidate must be prepared to do overtime as and when required to do so. Overtime will only be paid in special circumstances with the manager's approval.

BENEFITS:
Salary £28,000 per annum
Holiday 20 days per annum

APPLICATION PROCESS: CV and Covering Letter to technology_placement@ml.com

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS: 24th November 2006 (5pm GMT)